

A WAR WITH ENGLAND

would cost a mint of money but
5 CENTS WILL BUY A POUND

of Good CANDIES at A. C. TIPTON'S.

We have an immense stock, and are selling at prices never before named. Call and see us,
A. C. TIPTON.
East Main St. Logan, Ohio

THE HOCKING SENTINEL

HARRY S. GREEN, CITY EDITOR.

GOSSIP.

—L. Yerges, watchmaker.

—Patronize the Logan steam laundry.

—Rufus Webb was seen in Logan last Saturday.

—Take your laundry to the Logan steam laundry.

—Police and accommodating clerks at Rempel's Bazaar.

—F. C. Rochester is in Crawfordsville, Ind., on business.

—Dr. Turner, of Murry, was seen on our streets, Monday.

—Yerges repairs watches, clocks, rings, necklaces and glasses.

—Miss Jennie Lantz, of Gore, visited her sister in this city, Saturday.

—Mrs. Vanhorn, of Gore, visited her son, Jesse, last week.

—John L. Youker, of Maxville, was seen on our streets, Saturday.

—Yerges can repair your watches, clocks and jewelry.

—John C. Arnold has purchased the Logan steam laundry.

—John McManaway, of Langstreth, was calling on the Logan merchants, Saturday.

—El. Donovan was down the valley Saturday, in the interests of his clothing store.

—John M. Hillery, of Webb Summit, was a business visitor in our city last Saturday evening.

—All unsatisfactory work done by the Logan steam laundry will be re-laundried free of charge.

—Mrs. Joe Kuestrick, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

—John Schwartz is getting along nicely.

—Col. Rempel desires to call his old and new friends at the Bazaar this and next week.

—John Burgess, of Gore, was in the city, Saturday.

—John Hall was in Columbus Friday, on business.

—Geo. Elbert had his eye badly lacerated by running against a wire of the line in the rear of the Dollison's last week.

—Mr. John Shannon, of Toledo, spent a few days with his brother, T. J. Shannon, of East Main st., last Friday.

—Fred Grove made a trip through the valley last week in the interests of F. Blasius & Son, the tailors.

—Frank Brown, of the firm of Brown Bros., was calling on his numerous customers in the valley last Friday.

—Martin Thompson, who has moved in from the Rock House, has opened a Restaurant and lunch room on Gallagher Ave., first door south of John Bright's gun shop.

—Mrs. A. J. Ward and family of New Lexington, will spend Christmas with Mrs. S. E. McBride, of East Main st.

—The Rempel Bazaar sold the goods left over from last season at cost, and all goods now on exhibition are new. The latest inventions of hobby horses, dolls, toys, buggies, cutlery, pictures and queensware.

—Everett Burchfield spent last Sunday in Logan calling on a lady friend returning on the late train. We were on the train and just as it was pulling out Everett rushed in the car, all out of breath and puffing like a steam engine. He said he had run all the way from the Rempel House but he insisted that he had left the house of his lady friend when the clock showed that he had thirty minutes to make the train. It has not yet dawned upon Everett that his best girl had turned the clock back thirty minutes in order to make him miss his train. Hereafter Everett will keep an eye on his own timepiece. —Athens Journal.

—Rice & Barton tonight.

—John White will leave for Atlanta tomorrow.

—Mr. Ed. Price was a business visitor to Columbus, yesterday.

—Geo. Barbary, of Adelphi, was smiling on his friends here yesterday.

—Don't forget the pretty girls at the opera house to-night.

—This is your only chance to see Rice & Barton this season.

—Bert and Mrs. Engle were in Columbus, Tuesday, shopping.

—Mrs. John Gallagher, of Columbus, is visiting her sister Miss Vina Wright.

—Fr. I and Lu's Bright are down from Delaware to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Bright, of N. Walnut st.

—Nellie W. Baker has returned home after a six weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. M. Mumford, of Columbus.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Fisher, of Union Furnace, were in the city, Tuesday.

—Read Stiers & Co., new "ad" in the 5th and 6th column of this page.

—Watches of all kinds to suit all pockets at Weiland's.

—Messrs. Chas. and John Beyrou are in Ro. Lidge to-day on business.

—A. C. Tipton's new "ad" appears in this issue. Read it, it will interest you.

—Go with the crowds and purchase your Christmas goods at Rempel's Bazaar.

—John Arnold says the K. P. entertainment was a success; we would judge so from the time he retired last night.

—Mr. Chas. Chase, of the Weston-Jackson Belt Line, was in the city last night.

—Mr. Gordon Armstrong, who has been attending College at Delaware, is home for the holidays.

—A sign painter from Nelsonville has been doing some hand-some lettering on the windows of C. P. Montgomery, Gus. Heine, W. H. Hopkins and John Slsher.

—The Mail boxes are to be painted a bright red.

—Bodie Rochester and Harry Harrington were seen carrying two bricks down Main st. last night, wrapped in an old newspaper. They were to be used in the office of the "Story Teller" as supplies.

—When you do your Christmas shopping don't forget to examine the stock of jewelry and silverware at N. J. Weiland's. You may find something you need.

—Mr. Geo. Fox, the popular butcher, has been under the weather for a few days, is able to be around again.

—All Hood, of Lancaster, spent Tuesday with his brother, E. A. Hood, of this city.

—Tom Lewis, of Coalgate, attended the K. of P. Reception here last Tuesday evening.

—N. J. Weiland has a well selected stock of watches, clocks, silverware, gold and silver ornaments, diamonds etc., suitable for Christmas presents.

—We publish elsewhere the programme of the exercises at the Logan High school on last Friday.

—Stiers & Co., have a new "ad" in this issue.

—Perry Stockwell went down to Logan yesterday.—Lau, Gaz.

—Johnny Lappen while playing "Black Man" on the school house grounds last Wednesday fell and sprained his wrist.

—N. J. Weiland's is headquarters for Christmas Goods.

—Stockwell & Beck have something to tell you in their new "ad" that will interest you. Read it.

—Jesse Butin, who has been residing in Columbus for the last year, was employed to take charge of the Hayden business in Chicago, and left with his family for that city on last Saturday. He and his family take with them the best wishes of their many friends in Logan.

—A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, to all our readers.

—Mr. W. H. Isham was here last Friday and Saturday doing the advance work for Rice & Barton.

—Miss Clouse, of Columbus, who has been the guest of Mrs. Frank Downey returned home Saturday.

—J. T. Jones, special agent for the Standard Life and Accident Co., called on their agents, Catty Bros., Tuesday. While here they wrote up $10,000.00 worth of Accident policies.

—J. P. Catty spent last Monday and Tuesday in the thriving village of Laurelville writing up insurance.

—Frank Downey spent last Tuesday at Buchtel, inspecting the oil fields there.

—J. P. Catty was called by wire to New Lexington, yesterday, on urgent business.

—Murry City was represented one hundred strong at the K. P. Reception here Tuesday evening. They had a special train chartered.

—Will Deeds, formerly of the Hocking Valley, but now of the Z. & O. was in the city last week.

—Nelson Armstrong came over the K. P. meeting Friday and to see how the boys made a page.—Laurelville Record.

—John Flumm, of Heshboro, was in the city, Tuesday.

—When going to the depot ride with John Nixon.

—Douglas Carr, of South Perry, was in the city yesterday.

—W. P. Miller, of Union Fee, was in the city yesterday.

—John Sparann, the accommodating post master of Carbon Hill, was in the city yesterday, the guest of his brother Harry of East Main st.

—J. W. Weaver, of South Perry, was a business visitor to Logan yesterday.

—Miss Eugene Cook, one of our most accomplished young ladies, after a week's visit with friends here has returned to work at the State Hospital.

—Hon John F. White is in Columbus.

—The Anti Cigarette club meeting in the Court Room on last Friday night was largely attended.

—A train of 5 coaches passed through Logan this morning. It was the business men of Wellston special excursion to Columbus over the new road.

—Postmaster Wagner of South Perry is in the city to-day.

—Eli Chute of Greendale was a welcome visitor in Logan yesterday.

—The would-be sports of Lancaster are mad because a paper called "The People," a very nice sheet is giving them actions away.

—John Gallagher, our John, is reported at Wellston, where some trouble occurred between the Hocking Valley, and other competing rail roads. It may be assumed and is asserted, that John Gallagher being on the disputed territory, the dispute is settled.

—Capt. C. S. Wangler of Jackson, U. S. Inspector of Distillers for the 11th District was a visitor in Logan this morning, returning from an inspection of Stiers Apple Jack distillery at Haydensville. Capt Wangler is a pleasant gentleman, and an efficient officer and a red-headed, red hot democrat. He is in for the next war, and proposes to turn over to the Logan warriors all the fighting whisky he can find in the district.

—Yesterday Deputy U. S. Marshal Geo Shorr arrested four boys, on the order of the Postmaster, for misconduct in the lobby of the post office. The penalty for loitering and creating a disturbance, or using offensive language is very severe, and only on the solemn promise of the boys whose names are with held, out of respect for their parents, to observe becoming conduct, they escaped a term in the Work House. If the United States Commissioner has a lad before him for misconduct in the post office, there will be no mercy shown.

—Rempel's Bazaar for anything.

—T. B. Angle of Sand Run, was in the city to-day on business.

—$12.05 to Atlanta and return, Dec. 20th, 1895.

—Cheapest Christmas Goods in town at Rempel's Bazaar.

—Atlanta and return, only $12.05 from Logan.

—Catty Bros. will furnish you with blotters.

—Have you called at Rempel's Bazaar?

—Last cheap excursion to Atlanta and return, Dec. 20, 1895.

—Rempel's Bazaar has the largest, finest and most complete stock of Christmas goods ever shown in Logan.

—Join the cheap excursion to Atlanta, Ga., on Dec. 20th, 1895.

—Dan Schall, of Snook, was in the city, Friday.

—J. A. McClelland, of South Perry, was seen on our streets last week.

—Buy your Christmas presents at Rempel's Bazaar.

—Jake Fox was in Columbus, on business, last week.

—Nice Doll buggies at Rempel's Bazaar, only 35 cents.

—Mrs. J. A. Mathias fell down stairs, last Friday night, and sustained a badly sprained collar bone.

—Rempel's Bazaar has the largest stock of Christmas Goods in the city.

—Have you seen the lamp in the windows at Rempel's Bazaar? Stop and see them.

—The Journal-Gazette says: Mr. John Ucker killed three English sparrows at one shot with a revolver, Friday morning.

—Before purchasing call at Rempel's Bazaar.

—J. W. Rolfen, formerly of South Perry, but now of Adelphi, has been appointed Mayor of that place to fill a vacancy; caused by the death of Mayor Ely.

—Dr. W. A. Powell, of Athens, will lecture Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. The subject is "The Man that feared not the face of man." This is the first of a series of lectures on Presbyterianism. Admission by ticket. The Lecture will be over in time to see Rice and Barton at the Opera House.

—Mr. Ed. Hartly left to-day for a visit to his brother-in-law in Columbus.

—Joe Balch killed two hogs last Friday that dressed 410 pounds each. No sausage.

—When you go to the post office for your mail stop at Rempel's Bazaar.

—Gov. McKinley and ex-Gov. Foraker stopped off for a short time in Logan on last Monday evening, returning from the funeral of Hon H. S. Bundy, at Wellston.

—Rempel's Bazaar for toys.

—There will be a meeting of the executive committee at the Court House on Saturday Jan. 11th, 1896, to arrange a programme for the next meeting of the Institute on Jan 31st, and Feb. 1st. This meeting of the committee is very important as the subjects for discussion are then arranged and everybody interested is invited to meet with the committee and assist them in arranging the program. H. L. Wright, Pres.

—Rempel's Bazaar for Christmas Presents.

—The Logan Lodge K. of P. No. 119, had a celebration Tuesday evening, the occasion being the 16th, anniversary of the institution of the lodge in this city. There are five lodges in the county with a total membership of 460, viz Logan, Haydensville, Union Furnace, Murray City and Laurelville. Representatives from all the lodges were in attendance, Murray City and Laurelville attending in a body. A meeting of the Logan and Murray City lodges was held for work in the third Degree. A Banquet was given by the Logan Lodge to the visiting brethren in the Odd Fellows Auditorium, where a company of ladies and gentlemen to the number of 350 were sumptuously served. The affair was one of the most delightful social affairs our city has ever afforded. It brought together brethren from distant parts and gave opportunity for an interchange of courtesy for which the order is so characteristic. Besides it shows the public spirit of our Queen City in generous and hospitable spirit extended. After the banquet closed, the young members of all Societies had a pleasant dance.

—Last Cheap Excursion to Atlanta Exposition December 20.

—The lowest rate yet made to Atlanta only $12.05 from Logan. Tickets good for 10 days. This is your last chance, make your arrangements and go visit the great Exposition. For time of trains, and other information, call on C. W. Schwenne, agent, Logan, O.

DEAR OLD SANTA

Didn't Miss Us.

He has sent a great part of his pack ahead to our store so the children can look them over. Give the Boys and Girls a Merry Xmas. They are not always children. Study this list. Won't it help you select your gifts. Only 4 more days.

TOYS.

Tin Carts and Horses, Horse and Dump Carts, "Old Dobbin" and Coal Cart, Sulkies, horse and driver, Buckboards, horse and driver, Circus wagons, Band wagons, Fire engines, hook and ladder trucks, Street cars, Locomotive, tender & palace cars.

"Booming Cannon."

Tool chests - Drums - Games.

"Now for the Girls."

Dolls, dolls, dolls,

Dolls big, dolls, little dolls dressed dolls for you to dress. Dolls that say papa and mamma just as plain; dolls with long hair, to be braided or put up in Psyche knots; dolls that go to sleep. Dolls that beat cymbals and then the

"Doll Things."

Chairs, Sofas, Settees, Cradles

and don't you believe we've got DOLL BEDS, White Enamel and Gold Knobs just like you have at home. Extension tables and Dishes to play keep-house with, Folding beds and Wardrobes. Trunks big and little and all for the "dolls."

FANCY ARTICLES.

Toilet Mirrors,

Toilet cases, Toilet bottles, Maicure sets, Silver boxes for Handkerchiefs, Neckties, Jewellery and Gloves, Satin-lined, all colors. Gold and Plush Pin cushions,

Fan boxes, Broom holders, Porcelain card plates, Ink stands, Photo racks and Boxes, Match Safes and pin cushions, Medallions, Stand work baskets.

SOMETHING EXTRA

We opened up on Wednesday of this week the Largest and Handsomest line of FUR RUGS ever opened at any one time in Logan.

Colors—White, Fawn, Grey, Black, Leopard, Tiger and Lama. Xmas price $2.25 $3.50. See them.

Xmas Display on 2nd. Floor.

Come Early and avoid the afternoon's crush and crowd. Keep to the right and we'll do our best to wait on all promptly. Bring the children. They are sure to be pleased with something and then they enjoy it. Goods delivered anytime between now and Xmas.

Stiers & Co.

South Mulberry St.

LOGAN, OHIO.

Do You Know?

That the SENTINEL wishes you all a merry Christmas.

That Pierce Flowers was seen on our streets to-day.

That a certain dry good clerk uses 3 boxes of cigarettes a day.

That Dr. Mansfield and wife were visitors in Columbus Sunday.

That Mrs M. D. Moore will entertain the whist club to-night.

That a certain young society man in this city, went, yet he didn't go.

That Miss Emma Petty visited in Columbus Sunday, the guest of her sister Mary.

That a certain young man from a neighboring city, called on a young lady and blew out the gas.

That John Lohr and John Bright broke the record last week while hunting in Vinton county, by bringing home in 3 days hunt 101 rabbits.

That several young ladies have volunteered here service to get local for this column.

That Capt Friesner entertained the Wish-I-was-a bone club last Friday evening.

That A. C. Sands Jr. and wife of Cincinnati are going to visit Col. A. C. Sands.

That the well known Stag club had a coon roast in their room in the Frash Block Saturday night.

That Boys. You have one more chance to give a masquerade ball before leapy-year. Get a hustle on yourselves and have it New Years.

That several of our society people went to Lancaster Tuesday night to see the Gilbert opera company in Moscow.

That John Swartz who had his thumb cut off, is able to be around and getting along nicely.

That T. K. Walburn has sold the laundry to John Arnold formerly of Dollison & Arnold.

That Ed. Oliver, porter at Rempel House, while doing the hatchet act on a turkey, cut his thumb bad'y.

That Robt. R. Wright, who has been attending college at Worcester Mass will arrive home tomorrow.

That Misses Ella and Lucy Rochester returned home from Oxford where they have been at college.

That Harry Ambrose clerk at the Rempel House is an easy mark for all the traveling men.

That Frank Blasius Jr. is the possessor of the finest overcoat ever seen in this city.

Tom Webb and Jim Krieger were out hunting "x-mal" in and around Bremen last week. They were out 3 days and brought home 80 birds.

That Harry Shisher visited Vern Bowen in Columbus the latter part of last week.

That the lullaby concert given Thursday evening at the residence of Mary R. Gould was an elegant musical treat.

That Katherine Freisner is visiting in Columbus the guest of her father, Judge Freisner.

That Jessie James is a good story teller, no one would think it, but it is so.

That Carrol Brown informs us that a new String orchestra has been organized.

That Miles Pendegrast the blind grocery keeper fell in a water works trench and broke his arm.

That we are informed that Mr. Will C Finney, the genial agent at Haydensville, has gone into the jewelry business. Success to you Billy.

That Mr. and Mrs. Woolen who have been visiting in Franklin Ind. have returned to the city and are domiciled in the Little Flat.

That Postmaster Green was in Columbus on last Saturday, attending the funeral of Judge Thurman.

That the Holiday trade promises to be better this season than for many years before.

That Messrs Love and Townsend, two popular young pension examiners spent Sunday in Logan, and were not occupied so much in looking up the old soldiers records as they were in looking after the old soldiers pretty girls.

That Mrs Charley Rose and Miss Estell Finney went down to Nelsonville Friday evening to attend a meeting of the Magazine club, at the residence of Mrs Fred Preston. Dr. Powell of Athens delivered a very interesting lecture.

That the following Zanesville traveling men were registered at the Central Hotel Monday. T. A. Rei, Bloomer candy Co., H. A. Wagner, Elliott Branch U. S. Baking Co., John Miles, Werner Shoe Co., Frank Griggis, Black and Grant, Charley Cleiber, (the beardless youth, walking over the country for the Stolzenback Co., Arthur Mills, Aler & Gary, Deacon John McWharton, Pinkerton Bros. and J. Ira Bel', Harper & Cosgrove.

That Dr Knapp, the oculist of Zanesville, mailed his monthly monthly vigan on last Monday.

That Gus Baird was tomorrow for the Atlanta expo.

That Geo Ramsey of Columbus was calling on his many friends Tuesday.

That Clarence Warrick the has resigned his position with Ramsey and left for Chicago Tuesday morning.

That several of our young ladies are in receipt of invitations to a leap year dance at New Lexington.

That Mr. and Mrs. Hensel have returned home after a few weeks visit in the South.

That Mr. Robert C. Work left Monday for a business trip to Parkersburg and Wheeling W. Va.

That John Wellman is sick this week.

That on Sunday evening between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock a young lady and her escort were insulted by two raffians of the b-m series. But the gentlemen in question took a young lady to her home and came back to find that they had appeared. The Zanesville workhouse is too good for such costumers.